

SPN 499 : Special Project in Spanish

This course provides an opportunity for students to engage in independent research and writing under the supervision of a faculty member. This course is taught in the Spanish language. Papers must be written in Spanish.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Senior standing and approval in writing of the student's proposal by the instructor and the Director of the Spanish Program.