

THL 209 : Ways of Faith

Intended as an introduction to religion, this course will explore topics such as the reality of God, universal forms of religious experience, the implications of evil, the nature of ritual and religious symbolism, and the goals of salvation as evidenced in a variety of different religious traditions in the world.

Credits 3