OTD 700 : Fundamentals of Theory

This course introduces students to occupational therapy theories, models of practice and frames of reference. Students will understand how theories are developed and will select and utilize theories to inform and guide the occupational therapy process.

Credits 2