

OTD 722 : The Occupational Therapy Process with Children I

This course focuses on the foundational knowledge needed for pediatric occupational therapy practitioners. In addition, this course integrates theories driving pediatric practice to best support the OT practitioner's role throughout the OT process, specifically evaluation and assessment.

Credits 3