

OTD 808 : Clinical Reasoning II

In this case-based learning course, students will utilize theory to drive the evaluation and intervention process of physical and psychosocial needs in complex cases. This course will use practical application of key concepts introduced in practice courses this semester.

Credits 2