

PAS 529 : Clinical Skills I

This course is designed to provide instruction in the fundamental clinical skills necessary for patient care. A primary focus will be on performance of complete examinations of patients across the lifespan. Weekly lectures combined with small group instruction assist students with learning proper exam techniques, recognizing and appropriately describing physical findings, and using the clinical data to formulate differential diagnoses.

Credits 2