

PAS 674 : Emergency Medicine Rotation

The Emergency Medicine rotation is four weeks in length and provides the student opportunities to gain experience in evaluating and treating common medical emergencies encountered in the Emergency Department. The rotation will expose the student to cases of trauma, life-threatening conditions, acute illness, and injuries seen in an emergency setting.

Credits 4