

Examinations

Undergraduate course examinations are given at the close of each semester. An equivalent evaluative instrument may be used in place of a written examination. A final examination or equivalent instrument is required. Students must be at the scheduled final examination unless excused by the instructor of record. The final examination schedule is located on the Registrar's myCSM page.