

OTD 824 : Occupational Therapy Process with Upper Extremity Conditions

This course is designed to promote entry-level practice knowledge of common upper extremity orthopedic conditions and injuries and introduce rehabilitative processes to enhance occupational performance and engagement after upper extremity dysfunction. It emphasizes the development of sound professional reasoning and the use of scientific evidence for treatment.

Credits 3